

Menno Haven Winter Retreats

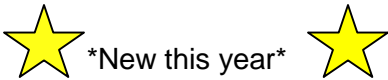

High School January 13-15, 2012

Speaker: Cyneatha Millsaps

Topic: The Christian Social Network

Together we will explore the challenges facing young Christians today when engaging the world around them. What can the bible teach us about social interactions, peer pressure, and Christian morals and virtues in today's social media world-wind?

Bio: Cyneatha has been lead pastor of Community Mennonite Church in Markham, IL for 4 years after graduating from AMBS in 2008. CMC is a multicultural urban Mennonite church, which seeks to show Christ love within a diverse community of believers. Cyneatha spent several years working directly with victims of domestic violence. She is married to her loving husband of fifteen years, Steven.

New this year

Juniors and seniors will have the opportunity to do the high ropes Trapeze Jump in the Activity Center. Freshmen and sophomores to follow if there is time.

Junior High January 20-22, 2012

Speaker: Samuel Voth Schrag

Topic: New Relationships: What the Bible says about Other People

We are shaped by our relationships with friends, family, and God. How do we enter into these relationships faithfully and healthily in good times and in bad? Learn how the actions (both wise and mistaken) of Biblical witnesses like Jesus, Paul, Naomi and others might help us as well.

Bio: Samuel Voth Schrag is pastor of the St. Louis Mennonite Fellowship, where he's been serving since 2007. He is married to Rachel Voth Schrag, his high school sweetheart. Samuel is a graduate of Bethel College and the Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary, a fan of running, board games, and difficult questions. Rachel and Samuel have 2 cats, Bits Rangoon and Hobo.

Family January 27-29, 2012

Worship time will include singing and other activities to include the entire family provided by various Menno Haven staff. Outside of worship time, enjoy a number of family friendly activities. Feel free to jump in on scheduled activities or enjoy free time with your family.
